

I am opposed to the nonregulation of the major networks. This will greatly increase the cost of data and voice connections. Not only will it increase the cost and make it harder for small business it will destroy the small businesses that rely on regulated costs of the major providers to resell the services. This will destroy hundreds of thousands of jobs. Do not pass this under any circumstances. You are reopening the phone monopoly which will destroy free enterprise.